

Gareth Gates Brings a Night of Iconic Love Songs to Floral Pavilion

Renowned singer and entertainer Gareth Gates is set to captivate audiences with his latest show, Gareth Gates Sings Love Songs from the Movies, coming to the Floral Pavilion on Friday 21st March 2025.

This one-night-only performance, self produced by Gareth himself, will take you on a heartfelt journey through some of the most iconic love songs ever featured in cinema. From the timeless “Unchained Melody” to the sizzling up tempo hits of Dirty Dancing, Gareth Gates reinterprets these beloved classics, offering a fresh and emotional experience. Each song is carefully chosen to transport the audience into the unforgettable love stories that have shaped generations.

With the support of a dynamic live band, West End singers, and stunning visuals, this show promises an evening brimming with emotion, nostalgia, and the magic of the movies. It’s an experience designed to touch the heart and ignite a romantic spark in everyone who attends.

At 40, Gareth Gates continues to inspire with his talent and tenacity. Recently, he wowed audiences with his resilience on SAS: Who Dares Wins Celebrity in November 2023, showcasing both his physical and mental strength. His openness about the severe bullying he endured due to his stammer added a profound layer to his victory, resonating deeply with viewers.

In an exciting new direction, Gareth is also making his mark in musical theatre writing. He is currently developing a new musical, slated to debut in 2025, which explores the challenges faced by a young man with a stammer—a deeply personal project for Gareth. This upcoming musical has already attracted the attention of a leading West End producer, creating significant buzz in the industry.

In addition to his theatrical projects, Gareth has just signed a major new record deal, marking a pivotal moment in his music career. He is currently in the studio working on a new album set for release later in 2025. This album is expected to showcase Gareth's evolving artistry, blending his classic sound with modern influences. Fans and critics alike eagerly anticipate this project, which promises to solidify Gareth's status as one of the UK’s most versatile and enduring musical talents.

Gareth expressed his excitement about the upcoming concert: “Bringing this show to New Brighton is a dream come true. Performing these iconic songs in such a beautiful venue, especially on Valentine’s Day, is something I’ve always wanted to do. Music is my life, and I’m looking forward to sharing this special night with my fans.”
